

Consent to membership Ordinary Member

Section 120(1) Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)

This form is used by eligible individuals in application for Ordinary Membership of Autism SA. Complete and return to Autism SA at the mailing address below. The application will be considered by the Board of Directors in accordance with Autism SA's Membership policy.

In accordance with Autism SA's Constitution, a maximum of one representative (including primary carer) of a client may be an Ordinary Member at any given time. Where more than one person claims to be the presentative of a client, the Board of Directors will determine in its sole discretion which person will be eligible to apply to be an Ordinary Member.

To apply Associate Membership for yourself, or your organisation, please complete the Organisational Associate Membership or Personal Associate Membership form.
